A "MIGHTY" AWAKENING.

Following the victory of race men at Chicago last week, came the "Mighty Awakening" on the part of the Negroes in Tennessee, when Bob Church with his delegation had been denied political recognition at the State convention at Chattanooga. The white bosses had chosen a few Negroes as delegates, which were termed by Church and his crowd as "hand picked," and did not represent the true spirit of the Negro of today. But when they saw their brethren take a decisive stand which meant so much for the race in the future, the hand picked delegates deserted the party bosses and stood by the real leaders who were working for our political emancipation.

We are pleased to see this spirit prevail among our group everywhere. Edward Wright, who was a Committeeman from the Second Ward at Chicago last week, was supported by race men who had heretofore been his enemy, but who were big and thrifty enough to sacrifice personal feelings for the common good of all. Mr. Wright was, without a doubt, the strongest race man in the ward and his success boosts the stock of the Negro voters of Chicago.

We should like to see the race men in St. Louis catch the "Mighty Awakening" spirit and unite their forces together for the common good of all. It is rather a pitiable sight to see those among us who are so fearful or short-sighted. Surely they ought to be able to discern the signs of the times. Let us wake up and throw off the nightmare of that time-when saying, "the time is not ripe." The leaders who are preaching such doctrine at this time are telling the masses, "You need new leadership."

Negro Delegates-at-Large.

We have contended that as a group, we were entitled to a delegate-at-large to the National Convention at Chicago. This we can have by standing together. It is those who believe in the things of yesterday who are crying, "You are asking too much." Remember—No contention, nothing gained.

SAME COLOR SCHEME.

The News Scimitar, Memphis, Tenn.
The same style of shades that have prevailed so long in Republican fashion will dominate the coming summer and fall seasons. The political artists in Chattanooga, Wednesday at the state convention decreed that the color should be the product of scum, bling the white, black and tan, and black. Whatever comes out of the pot will be the official color scheme.

It seems that Tom Taylor for the Tenth district had the organization; True and Quinn had the machinery, and Bob Church had the votes.

Taylor could not be refused a seat because his delegates possessed the necessary element of regularity; True and Quinn could not be denied because they have the election machinery in the county, and Church terrorized the convention by threatening not only to take the Negroes of Shelby county, but the Negroes of the state away from the Republican party.

It is no wonder that the convention, in the interest of harmony, decided to cut the delegation three ways. The Republican party in Tennessee is ever looking to keeping the number of Negro Republicans at the maximum and the white Republicans at the "sufficiently minimum." The Southern Republican's idea of the necessary number of white Republicans for any state is one for each federal office at the disposal of the president.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of Posey Thompson, who departed this life one year ago, April 21, 1919.
Gone, but not forgotten.
True friends, J. L. and M. L.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving memory of our mother, Elizabeth McCool.
The 21st of April seems to us to be the saddest of the year.
It took from us a mother dear.

Day by day we sadly miss her,
Friends may think the wound is healed
But they little know the sorrow
That's within our heart concealed.

IN MEMORIAM.

Sleep on, dear mother, and take your rest.
We loved thee, but God loved thee
best.
Sadly missed by her children,
Mrs. Anderson, Maud Moore, Edna Thomas.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of my dear daughter, Daisy Thompson, who departed this life April 24, 1919.
One year has passed away.
Since that sad and mournful day,
When God took away my best,
Called you to that home of rest.

IN MEMORIAM.

Sadly missed by Mrs. T. Thompson, mother; Mrs. A. Maud, sister and friends.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of my dear
sister, Bettie Gray, who departed this life April 19, 1917.
There is no grand, immortal sphere,
Beyond this realm of broken life,
To fit the waste that marks us here,
And dry the tears from mourning eyes.
Where winter mists in endless spring
And June stands near with dew-drops Forever.

IN MEMORIAM.

Where we may hear the dove on a tree,
Who loved us, is this world of ours.
And, and let my cheer and weep,
With tears for you I cannot weep.
Oh, sister, we have lost you,
And do not those still remember me?
Sadly missed by sister, father and brother-in-law, Mrs. Esther Green.

Glad to See Them? Of Course You Are

When friends call—close, personal friends—you are always glad to bid them welcome whether the home is fixed up or not. But there is a whole lot more satisfaction in having things fixed right—this you will admit without argument.

Even for the casual callers, to say nothing of those who spend the night or a week end, one likes to have a few extra nice pieces of furniture scattered about over the house just as a sort of index, as it were, to the good taste of the occupants.

Have you such furniture? Look around thru the different rooms! Take an inventory! Have you? At Eleventh and Market in your own good old City of St. Louis is a very unusual furniture store in many particulars, of which we will mention here just three:

1st. We do not carry cheap, built-only-for-a-price furniture at all. There is some of the lowest priced good furniture here that can be found in any store in St. Louis, but "junk" is conspicuous by its absence.

2nd. All prices here are marked in plain figures. We know what our goods cost us, the profit we must obtain and when we put the figures on the price tags, that is the price at which the merchandise is sold.

3rd. If anything goes wrong; if there are any just complaints to make; we have a department to look after things of this kind and they receive attention—receive it promptly, courteously, efficiently.

Now for your own sake; for your family's sake; for the sake of your friends, your pride and your pocket-book, let us advise that you get acquainted with our store right away.
